Application and Certification for Establishing Credit by Examination

In accordance with University regulations, any student who is enrolled in the University and who is not on academic probation may, with the permission of the appropriate department, challenge by examination any undergraduate course. The manner of administering the examination shall be determined by the department in which the course is being challenged.

Students must secure certification of good standing from University Student Records Office. Student cannot be on probation.

Students must secure ALL approvals (signatures) below in the order presented and PRIOR to examination.

Students must pay applicable tuition rate per credit hour to Business Office.

Students must earn a grade of "C" or better to receive credit. The grade received is recorded on the student's record as "CR" or better to receive credit. The grade received is recorded on the student's record as "CR", and is not included in the grade point average.

In exceptional cases where a student demonstrates outstanding ability and information in a given course, he may be permitted to withdraw from a class and then challenge the course provided the withdrawal is accomplished prior to mid-semester.
